BUSINESS TOOLKIT

<https://police.suisun.com>

WHAT CAN A BUSINESS DO?

- 1) A private business open to the public has the right to refuse service to a customer.
- 2) A signed trespass letter allows the Suisun Police Department to enforce Penal Code sections 602(o) and 647(e) without the business owner/operator present.

Did you know?

You can file a trespass letter, request extra patrol, and find crime information via our website:
<https://police.suisun.com>

You can contact dispatch at 707-421-7373 or email pddispatch@suisun.com

- 3) For people who regularly disrupt your business, you may wish to seek a restraining order through Solano County.
- 4) A business group, such as Chamber of Commerce or Business Improvement District may help address concerns that effect multiple businesses.

COLLABORATION:

The Suisun City Police Department works closely with local businesses and property managers to create a safe and inviting environment for our community.

Our partnerships focus on reducing the impacts of trespassing, homelessness, mental health crisis and narcotic use on our community.

We are committed to implementing strategies that enhance public safety and create community wellbeing.
